

Privacy Policy

Dear client, visitor,

The General Data Protection Regulation legislation (GDPR) has been in force since 25 May 2018. The GDPR is a new legislation on the management and security of personal data of European citizens. This legislation determines how companies should handle personal data, focused on privacy and security. We guarantee that your data will only be used for our business purposes.

We also undertake not to pass on your data to third parties without your permission.

For current projects, the current and future partners of your project must be provided with your data in the context of the implementation of our agreement.

For this we use your data (name, address, e-mail, ...) for quotation requests, communication with the government, all construction partners, etc.

The data stored by us is limited to plans and documents collected and created in the context of the assignment you gave us.

Best regards,

Charline Boks Studio
